To Whom It May Concern:

Counselling Services of Belleville & District has engaged Can Wealth Financial Services to act as our broker and representative since 2001. They have provided services for both our extended health benefit package and the company registered pension plan.

To date we have been pleased with their services, their prompt response to any questions or concerns as well as their ability to negotiate on our behalf with the benefit carriers to contain our costs.

I do not have any hesitation in recommending them.

Yours truly,
